

Two great weekends of Heritage Open Days in West Suffolk

THURSDAY 6 TO SUNDAY 9 AND
THURSDAY 13 TO SUNDAY 16
SEPTEMBER 2018

There will be events in
Bury St Edmunds
and the local area
both weekends
for you to explore

A national celebration of England's cultural architectural heritage

Forest Heath & St Edmundsbury councils

West Suffolk
working together

www.westsuffolk.gov.uk

heritage open days

WEEK 1

THURSDAY 6 TO SUNDAY 9

SEPTEMBER 2018

1 Ancient Library

St Edmundsbury Cathedral, Angel Hill, IP33 1LS
FRIDAY 7 AND SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER,
14.00 - 16.30 (final session 16.00)

Come and learn more about our Ancient Library and the books within.

2 Athenaeum Astronomy Association

Abbey Gardens, Angel Hill, IP33 1LS
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10.00 - 16.00

Solar Observing & Astronomy Workshop
Visitors and budding astronomers will have the opportunity to try out a variety of astronomy workshop activities (adults & children), try out astronomy equipment, watch a solar demonstration. Find out about the restoration of the Victorian observatory and telescope atop the Athenaeum. Please note the Antheneum Observatory will not be open to view.

3 Bury St Edmunds Quakers

St John's Street, IP33 1SJ
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 17:00
AND SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER, 14:00 - 16:00

Extraordinary Quaker Women
Visit the historic 18th Century Quaker Meeting House, with its 21st modern ecological extension and beautiful garden. Learn about some extraordinary local and national Quaker Women and the history of Bury Quakers.

4 Bury St Edmunds Guildhall

Guildhall Street, Bury St Edmunds
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00
SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 16:00

An opportunity to find out about 'Women of Bury St Edmunds', visit the Royal Observer Corps Control Room. Talks, enactments and workshops for various ages. Lovely enclosed gardens and much more.
Booking required for talks & workshops.

SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30

Women of Bury St Edmunds

Hear the stories of 'Women of Bury St Edmunds' from years gone by as you meet costumed interpreters and get drawn into their daily lives. All ages.

SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 13:30 - 14:30

Significant Women

Hear about significant women and their impact on life in Bury St Edmunds. Adults & children over 12 years.

SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30

Get hands-on in this workshop, creating woollen cloth in the old fashioned way. Adults and children over 12 years.

SUNDAY 9TH SEPTEMBER, 13:30 - 14:30

Create a collaborative embroidered panel based on fascinating local history. Aimed at children from 7 years upwards.

5 Look Inside the Historic Bury St Edmunds Farmers Club

Pump Lane, IP33 1HQ
FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30
with lunch option, or 15:00 - 16:00
with afternoon tea option

A guided tour of a Grade 1 historic building in the town centre, once townhouse to the Gage family of Hengrave Hall. See the development of this unique building from its mediaeval origins to its regency golden age and its more recent use as a private members' club for the last 70 years. Refreshments at extra cost.

Email frontofhouse@bsefc.co.uk or call 01284 750969.

6 Norman Tower

Abbey House, Angel Hill, IP33 1LS
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, TOURS AT 09:45,
10:45, 11:45, 13:30, 14:30 & 15:30

The forty five minute tour will include a demonstration of bell ringing and a brief history of the Norman Tower, the bells and the art of bell ringing. Not suitable for children under 8 and all children must be accompanied by an adult. Booking required

7 Old Cupola 1693-2012 Lost Heritage

Moyses Hall Museum, Cornhill, IP33 1DX
SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER, 14:00 - 15:30

Talk on the original house that Thomas Macro junior had built, documenting its history until destroyed by fire in June 2012. An appreciation of what was a much loved Bury St Edmunds landmark.

8 Record Office

77 Raingate Street, IP33 2AR
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00

To commemorate the events of the First World War, the Bury St Edmunds Record Office have organised three one hour talks which highlight the enduring legacy of the conflict.

1. Images and Legacy 10:00 - 11:00

Through the medium of over 40 specially commissioned paintings, by the internationally renowned illustrator Mr Geoff Pleasance, Robert Butterworth will give a two part presentation.

2. The Legacy of War Memorials 11:30 - 12:30

Explore the legacy of War Memorials through a talk presented by Gwynn Thomas, former curator at the Suffolk Regimental Museum. He will look at the different styles of town and village memorials and consider both those erected by organisations to commemorate their members, and by families to remember their loved ones.

3. Poppy Fields and ebay: using WWI memorabilia to trace ancestry 14:00 - 15:00

Geraldine Charles FIBIS trustee will talk about how she is commemorating those who served in The Great War. Seeing items of WWI memorabilia for sale on eBay gave Geraldine the idea to buy items for use as a starting point for family history research.

SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER

Exhibition commemorating the end of the First World War about life on the Home Front in our local area. Discover the stories of those who were affected by war locally through letters, photographs, newspapers and diaries.

This was also a period of great change for women who played vital roles both at home and on the front line. To celebrate, local historian Sara Doig will be hosting 10 minute talks throughout the day, each one focusing on an 'extraordinary woman'. Craft activities for children aged 5 and over to take part in. Please note 'walk-in' talks on Saturday 8th only. Record Office 01284 741212.

9 St Edmunds Catholic Church and Chapel

Westgate Street, Bury St Edmunds
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 16:00

One of the oldest Catholic Chapels in England and the church subsequently built in 1837 in Greek Revival style. Guided tours and exhibitions of memorabilia with reference to extraordinary women who have etched their place in local Catholic history.

"find out about Women of Bury St Edmunds"

"commemorate the events of the First World"

WEEK 1

THURSDAY 6 TO SUNDAY 9
SEPTEMBER 2018

10 St. John's Church - A guided tour and behind the scenes

St John's Street, Bury St Edmunds
FRIDAY 7, SATURDAY 8 AND SUNDAY
9 SEPTEMBER, 15:00

Learn about the history, architecture and features of the prominent St John's Church. Discover some notable characters, stunning stained glass. Guides on hand to answer any questions.

11 Suffolk Regiment Museum

The Keep, Out Risbygate, IP33 3RN
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00
(roof open 11:00 - 14:00)

The Keep, built in 1878 is the only surviving building from the former Suffolk Regiment Depot. The building, which was formerly the Armoury and Quartermaster's Stores, now houses the award-winning Suffolk

Regiment Museum. Weather permitting there will be a rare opportunity to admire the view of Bury from the roof of the Keep.

12 Theatre Royal

5 Westgate Street, IP33 1QR
THURSDAY 6 & FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER, TOURS
AT 11:00 & 14:00. SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER,
TOURS AT 10:00 & 11:00

The Theatre Royal was designed by the renowned architect William Wilkins. With many of its original features still intact it is the last remaining Regency Playhouse in the country. Guided tours will take you to areas of the theatre the public rarely see. Bookings: 01284 769505, Email: booking@theatreroyal.org www.theatreroyal.org/tours/

13 Tour of the Great Churchyard

The Great Churchyard, IP33 1RS
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 11:00

Pat Murrell will discuss some of the people, buildings and events associated with this former burial ground in late Stuart and Georgian times (1660-1830).

Booking required.

14 Unitarian Meeting House

Churchgate Street, IP31 1RH
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00

One of the finest non-conformist chapels in the country, built in 1711 with a magnificent two-tier pulpit and outstanding brick work. It was the first brick built building in Bury St Edmunds and has been a place of worship for the Presbyterians at first and then Unitarians from the latter 18th century, who hold regular services which everyone is welcome to attend. It also opens for concerts, exhibitions, lectures, public meetings and weddings.

15 Bardwell Church

Bardwell Church, IP31 1AH
SATURDAY 8 AND SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER,
10:00 - 16:00

A grade 1 listed church featuring a nave with Hammer-beam roof dated 1421 and an 87 foot tower. Guides will be manning the church and trails available for children.

16 Fullers Mill Garden

Icklingham Road, West Stow, IP28 6HD
SATURDAY 8 AND SUNDAY
9 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 17:00

Fullers Mill is an enchanting seven-acre garden on the banks of the River Lark at West Stow. Occupying a beautiful woodland site, the garden is filled with rare and unusual shrubs, perennials, lilies and marginal plants. At this time of year there will be bright late summer colours from dahlias, asters and much more. Plants for sale.

17 Great War Huts

Brook Farm, Hawstead, IP29 5NW
FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER AND SATURDAY 8
SEPTEMBER, TOURS AT 10:00, 12:30, 15:00

Great War huts will be 'on parade' again offering tours of the site and hosting a special exhibition 'Stars of the Khaki Screen' a collection of actual uniforms worn by well known stars in many film, television and theatre productions. Four original temporary wooden buildings from the 1914-1918 War have now been restored.

Bookings: 01284 388986, Email: greatwarhuts@gmail.com, www.greatwarhuts.org/heritage-open-days

18 Lackford Lakes Guided Walk

Lackford Lakes, Bury Road, IP28 6HX
THURSDAY 6 AND FRIDAY 7 SEPTEMBER,
11:00 - 13:00 & 14:00 - 16:00.

Take a guided walk around the nature reserve observing the wildlife that uses it. Booking required, www.suffolkwildlifetrust.org

19 Pakenham Watermill

Mill Road, Pakenham, IP31 2NB
SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER, 11:00-17:00

Visit the last working water mill in Suffolk – a unique place to see traditional milling of wholemeal flour, plus baking, oil engine working, craft demonstrations and folk music.

20 Palace House Newmarket

James Ward, Animal Painter RA
National Heritage Centre for Horseracing and Sporting Art, Palace House, Palace Street,
Newmarket. CB8 8EP
THURSDAY 6 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 17:00

Brought together for a rare viewing, are paintings including the artists arresting Fight between Lion and a Tiger (1797) on loan from the Fitzwilliam, Cambridge and View in Tabley Park (1813-18) on loan from the Tate. This exhibition will explore the special characteristics of Wards works, including his focus on the emotional drama of his subject.

21 Rede Hall Farm Park

Rede Hall Farm, Chedburgh, IP29 4UG
FRIDAY 7 AND SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER,
10:00 - 12:00

Rede Hall farm is home to Suffolk's own breed of horse - the Suffolk Punch. Rede Hall Farm work, show and breed the horses - let them show you round the farm, and hear a talk on the living heritage of Suffolk. Booking required.

22 St Leonard's Open Day

The Green, Horringer, Bury St Edmunds, IP29 5RU
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 8:30 - 17:00

Visit St Leonard's Church which has been on its present site for 1,000 years. This beautiful Church has recently completed a Bell restoration Project and demonstrations will be given by the church bell ringers led by the Tower Captain. Discover the links with the Hervey Family of Ickworth.

23 Clare Ancient House Museum and Clare Castle

Meet at Clare Castle Country Park Car Park
SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 13:00

A two hour walk around Clare's natural and built heritage to include Clare Castle (motte and baileys), the Country Park, the Nuttery, Clare Common (the Castle's medieval farm) and Clare

Priory. Optional access to the Ancient House Museum at the end. An easy 3 mile walk with more walking than commentary. (Walk 1 of 2).

24 West Stow Anglo-Saxon Village

Icklingham Road, West Stow, IP28 6HG
SATURDAY 8 AND SUNDAY 9 SEPTEMBER

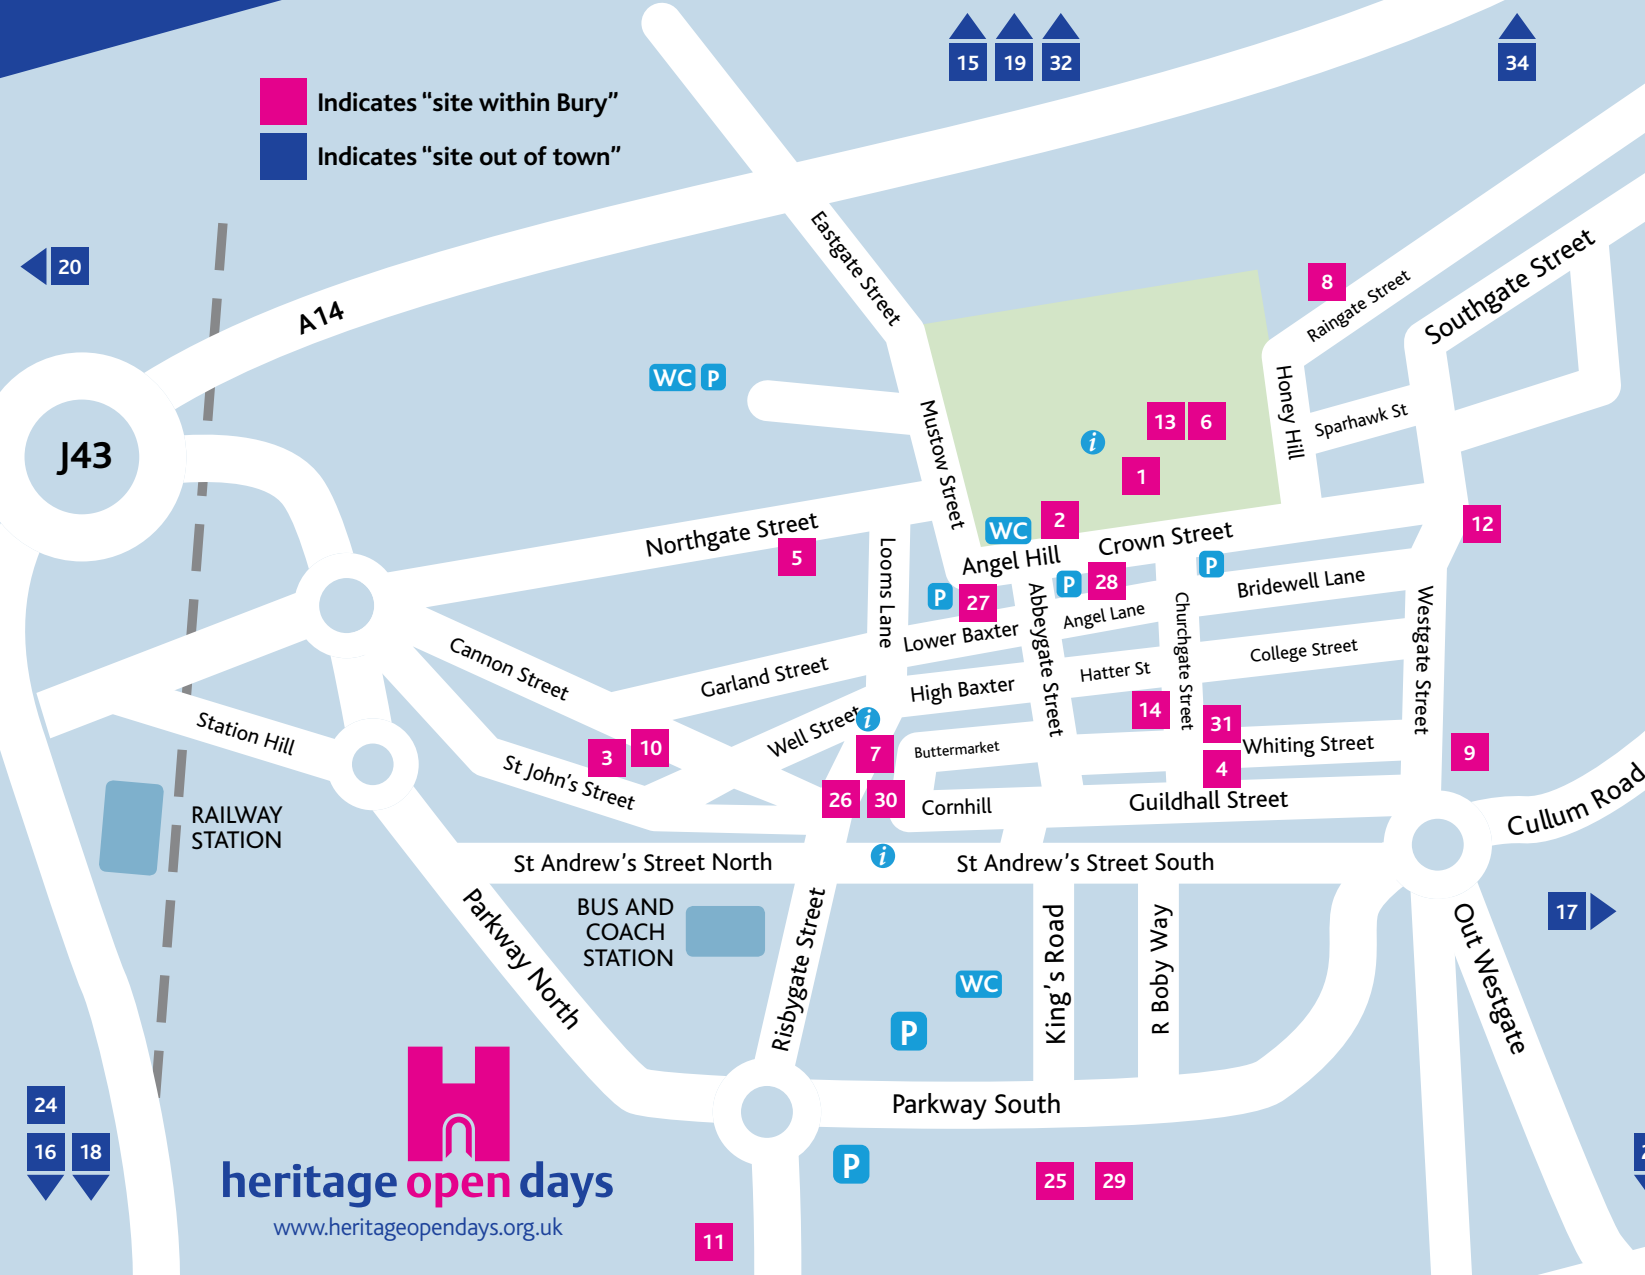

One of England's great archaeological sites, West Stow has extensive indoor galleries and a stunning recreation of an Anglo-Saxon village. Home to the Beowulf and Grendel Trail, this interpretive trail has been inspired by the ancient saga of Beowulf and Grendel. Enjoy nature trails, walks and an adventure playground.

Where to find your event...

in Bury St Edmunds and beyond

- Indicates "site within Bury"
- Indicates "site out of town"

WEEK 2

THURSDAY 13 TO SUNDAY 16

SEPTEMBER 2018

1 Ancient Library B D

St Edmundsbury Cathedral, Angel Hill, IP33 1LS
FRIDAY 14 AND SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER,
14.00 - 16.30 (final session 16.00)

Come and learn more about our Ancient Library and the books within.

25 Bury St Edmunds Cemetery Open Day

Borough Cemetery, 91 Kings Road, IP33 3DT
FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 14:30

This is a chance to look inside the Cemetery Chapel, search cemetery records dating back to 1855 and explore the cemetery's history and future. See the restored hand bier for transporting coffins.

4 Bury St Edmunds Guildhall N B

Guildhall Street, Bury St Edmunds
SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00
SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 16:00

An opportunity to find out about 'Women of Bury St Edmunds', visit the Royal Observer Corps Control Room. Talks, enactments and workshops for various ages. Lovely enclosed gardens and much more. Booking required for talks & workshops

SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30

Women of Bury St Edmunds

Hear the stories of 'Women of Bury St Edmunds' from years gone by as you meet costumed interpreters and get drawn into their daily lives. All ages.

SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 13:30 - 14:30

Significant women

Hear about significant women and their impact on life in Bury St Edmunds. Adults & children over 12 years.

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30

Get hands-on in this workshop, creating woollen cloth in the old fashioned way. Adults and children over 12 years.

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 13:30 - 14:30

Create a collaborative embroidered panel based on fascinating local history. Aimed at children from 7 years upwards.

26 Bury St Edmunds Postcard Club

Moyse's Hall Museum, Cornhill, IP33 1DX
FRIDAY 14 AND SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER,
10:00 - 16:00

A chance to view a collection of old and modern cards on various subjects by members of this local club. Visit their display for advice on this rewarding hobby. Some items will be available to purchase.

27 Guided Walks of Bury St Edmunds B

Cathedral Information Point
SATURDAY 15 AND SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER,
11:00 & 14:00

Join one of the registered town guides on a historic tour learning some of the fascinating history of Bury St Edmunds.

28 Ladies of the Town N B

Meet at the Angel Hill, near War Memorial
SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 14:00

A guided tour around the centre of historical Bury St Edmunds to discover more about some of the movers and shakers of the town – who also happen to be women!

29 Late Georgian & Victorian Residents of Bury St Edmunds B

The Chapel, Borough Cemetery, IP33 3DT
FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER, 11:00

A tour around the older part of the cemetery first opened in 1854, looking at the graves of prominent people connected with Bury St Edmunds. Also some of the First World War graves and victims of a Zeppelin raid. Tour led by local historian Pat Murrell. Booking required.

5 Look Inside the Historic Bury St Edmunds Farmers Club B D

Pump Lane, IP33 1HQ
FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30
with lunch option, or 15:00 - 16:00
with afternoon tea option.
SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 11:30 - 12:30
with lunch option

A guided tour of a Grade 1 historic building in the town centre, once townhouse to the Gage family of Hengrave Hall. See the development of this unique building from its mediaeval origins to its regency golden age and its more recent use as a private members' club for the last 70 years. Refreshments at extra cost.
Email frontofhouse@bsefc.co.uk or call 01284 750969

30 Pursuit of Pleasure... Bury Fair in its Georgian Heyday N B

Moyse's Hall Museum, Cornhill, IP33 1DX
SUNDAY 16TH SEPTEMBER, 14:00 - 15:30

Extensively researched this talk reveals the fun of Bury Fair and its importance in the commercialisation of leisure and the urban renaissance of Bury St Edmunds in the eighteenth century.

8 Record Office D

77 Raingate Street, IP33 2AR
SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00

Exhibition commemorating the end of the First World War about life on the Home Front in our local area. Discover the stories of those who were affected by war locally through letters, photographs, newspapers and diaries.

This was also a period of great change for women who played vital roles both at home and on the front line. Craft activities for children aged 5 and over to take part in. Please note 'walk-in' talks on Saturday 8th only.

9 St Edmunds Catholic Church and Chapel

Westgate Street, Bury St Edmunds
FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 16:00

One of the oldest Catholic Chapels in England and the church subsequently built in 1837 in Greek Revival style. Guided tours and exhibitions of memorabilia with reference to extraordinary women who have etched their place in local Catholic history.

10 St. John's Church - A guided tour and behind the scenes N

St John's Street, Bury St Edmunds
FRIDAY 14, SATURDAY 15 AND SUNDAY
16 SEPTEMBER, 15:00

Learn about the history, architecture and features of the prominent St John's Church. Discover some notable characters, stunning stained glass. Guides on hand to answer any questions.

11 Suffolk Regiment Museum

The Keep, Out Risbygate, IP33 3RN
SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00
(roof open 11:00 - 14:00)

The Keep, built in 1878 is the only surviving building from the former Suffolk Regiment Depot. The building, which was formerly the Armoury and Quartermaster's Stores, now houses the award-winning Suffolk Regiment Museum. Weather permitting there will be a rare opportunity to admire the view of Bury from the roof of the Keep.

GUIDED WALKS OF BURY ST EDMUNDS

"Enjoy your visit to Bury even more with a guided walk"

"Bury St Edmunds Farmers Club... these days you definitely don't have to be a farmer to join"

WEEK 2

THURSDAY 13 TO SUNDAY 16

SEPTEMBER 2018

12 Theatre Royal

5 Westgate Street, IP33 1QR

THURSDAY 13 SEPTEMBER, TOUR 10:00

(limited access to stage)

FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER TOURS

AT 11:00 & 14:00

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER TOURS

AT 10:00 & 11:00

The Theatre Royal was designed by the renowned architect William Wilkins. With many of its original features still intact it is the last remaining Regency Playhouse in the country. Guided tours will take you to areas of the theatre the public rarely see. Bookings: 01284 769505, Email: booking@theatreroyal.org www.theatreroyal.org/tours/

14 Unitarian Meeting House

Churchgate Street, IP31 1RH

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 16:00,

SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 15:00

One of the finest non-conformist chapels in the country, built in 1711 with a magnificent two-tier pulpit and outstanding brick work. It was the first brick built building in Bury St Edmunds and has been a place of worship for the Presbyterians at first and then Unitarians from the latter 18th century., who hold regular services which everyone is welcome to attend. It also opens for concerts, exhibitions, lectures, public meetings and weddings.

31 Under Bury St Edmunds

United Reformed Church, Whiting Street, IP33 1NR

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 10:30

An unusual illustrated talk on the tunnels, cellars chalk caves/ mines beneath the surface in Bury St Edmunds. Discover what is directly beneath your feet!

32 Bardwell Windmill

School Lane, Bardwell, IP31 1AD

SATURDAY 15 AND SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER,

10:30 - 17:00

Bardwell windmill, recently restored to working order, is believed to have been built in the 1820s and stands on the edge of the village where it served the community until the 1940s. On the day you can see the sails turn (if it's windy) and visit the home baking shop for a variety of flours. N.B. the bakery will only be open on the Saturday, between 09:00-13:00

33 Guided Walk

East Town Park Visitor Centre, Couplas Rd, Haverhill, CB9 7UW

SUNDAY 16 SEPTEMBER, 10:00 - 14:00

A 6 mile walk through the countryside around Haverhill, passing through Sturmer, famous for the Sturmer Pippin apple and passing by Stour Mere. Onwards through Kedington, home to one of the oldest churches in Suffolk. Led by a ranger who will point out wildlife and features of interest on the way. Option of stopping for a pub lunch or bring picnic. Duration of walk 3 to 4 hours.

18 Lackford Lakes Guided Walk

Lackford Lakes, Bury Road, IP28 6HX

THURSDAY 13 AND FRIDAY 14 SEPTEMBER,

11:00 - 13:00 & 14:00 - 16:00.

Take a guided walk around the nature reserve observing the wildlife that uses it. Booking required, www.suffolkwildlifetrust.org

24 The Built and Natural Heritage of Clare

Meet at Clare Castle Country Park Car Park

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 11:00 - 13:00

A one and a half to two hour tour of Clare's built heritage, to include Clare Priory, Clare Castle ( motte and baileys), Victorian railway buildings, the Parish " Wool" Church, Market Hill and Clare's impressive medieval architecture ( over 130 listed buildings). Optional access to the Museum at the end. An easy ninety minute tour with more commentary than walking. (Walk 2 of 2).

34 The Rise and fall of Rougham Hall

Blackthorpe Barn, Rougham, Bury St Edmunds

SATURDAY 15 SEPTEMBER, 14:00 - 17:00

An introductory historical talk by George Agnew in the Meadow Room at Blackthorpe Barn followed by a two hour walk to the ruins of Rougham Hall and back, seeing parts of the old parkland and gardens. Strong footwear essential. Walk involves crossing a meadow with cattle and a walk through woodland and parkland.

To find out more or to book a tour, visit our website www.burystedmundstourguides.org or call 01284 758130

Follow us...

Your visit to Bury St Edmunds wouldn't be complete without a guided tour of our historic town.

And who better to show you round than the Bury St Edmunds Registered Tour Guides, a highly-trained team who have earned the right to wear the coveted Blue Badge or Green Badge symbols of tour guiding excellence.

Bury St. Edmunds
TOUR GUIDES

"Bardwell Mill, home to Wooster's Bakery"

"Rougham Hall was built in the 1820s or 1830s in red brick for Philip Bennet"

Enjoy not just one but two weekends of Heritage Open Days this September. The first week is from Thursday 6 to Sunday 9 and the second week from Thursday 13 to Sunday 16 September 2018.

Heritage Open Days is co-ordinated by the National Trust with support from players of Peoples Postcode Lottery, and involves the special opening of interesting buildings. Some are not normally open to the public while others are normally open at a charge. Entry will be free but it is advised that you check to see whether advanced booking is required.

HOW TO BOOK AN EVENT

For events that require booking in advance

1. CALL the Apex on 01284 758000, OR
2. CALL the specific number given, OR
3. VISIT www.whatsonwestsuffolk.co.uk

UNDERSTANDING THE KEY

Each event has a number which is a map reference on the centre pages.

A pink number 3 indicates an event in Bury St Edmunds whilst a blue 15 number indicates an event in the surrounding area.

 New event for 2018

 Refreshments Available

 Childrens Activities

 Booking Required

heritage open days
www.heritageopendays.org.uk

DISCLAIMER

Due to the nature of some of these buildings they may not be fully accessible. Programme details are published in good faith but changes may occasionally be necessary. Please check at time of booking or contact the TIC 01284 758000 for further details.